

turney," said the that profanity in ishable with im-udence of the un-se, it will in this at the past has been in this portion of the fruit trees ed by it. A gentle-mouth of the Mi-sand plantain and er of orange, lemon ell, and almost one now ready for use.

usually productive.
experiment made,
of the tropics may rdinary success.

—Our late London
t Ali leans to the airo Railroad, and his, if true, would h influence was in f the Pacha. It is gineers in the serlared themselves in h, however, assert of an impracticable own plan of a rail-r, expedite the pas-n one day—an ob-y of a very sharp ilroad is estimated ling. Nobody prehic canal, with the
is.—N. Y. Mirror,

The U. S. frigate
pennant of Com.
for the Mediter-
n the westward.
nderstand that the orders on Friday
g yesterday morn-Sabbath, he con-
until this morning.
st favorable for a
with a smart west-p rejoice the heart lively and active endable example,
l by other officers refused to violate unnecessary work
"Thou shalt keep

Market 4 per Freeman's 8 1/2; 1-2; Atlas 3; At-
lobe 3; Granite 3;
North 3; Shawmut
Dealers 3; Treachusetts 2 4-5 2 1-2.

[Transcript]

it. This, it was told at Augusta would be the case, immediately, if the Argus should be made the State Paper. All these statements were circulated for sinister purposes, and doubtless had their effect upon many honest members. More hereafter.

A New Paper. The Daily Evening Traveller is the title of a new daily paper published in Boston, by Upton, Ladd & Co. It is printed on good paper, in the best style of typography.

Bad Travelling.—The accommodation stages, that left Augusta at 5 o'clock Thursday morning, arrived in this city at half past eleven in the evening. They were four hours working through from North Yarmouth, being two hours coming the first two miles from that village.

Daniel Webster has been chosen a member of the Baltimore Sabbath Association. Who was it that said "there are no Sabbaths in Revolutionary times?"

Montreal. The population in Montreal, is about 64,000.

Miller's Men in trouble. At Bangor, at the session of the Probate Court, eleven of the Adven-tists, living in Orrington, were placed under guardianship, as insane. One person had his case postponed under the most solemn promise that if the world did not come to an end in a few days he would go to work and attend to his affairs.

The former standing of these men, as we learn from the Whig, was a respectable one. They were active and thriving, and worth thousands of dollars, but by the Miller delusion which they have embraced, they have neglected all business and been placed under guardianship to prevent their becoming reduced to beggary.

Respect. The flags of the shipping at Philadelphia were lowered at half mast one day last week, as a mark of respect to the memory of Capt, Houdlette, deceased, of the brig Margaret of Dresden, Maine, who was 45 years master of a vessel.
His remains have been removed to Dresden.

A Strike. The journeymen carpenters of Philadelphia are on a strike for higher wages. A large number of the craft held a meeting lately in the State House yard. Their present wages are $1 25 per day, and they demand $1 50—which they ought to have.

Accident. Mr Henry Johnson, of Pittston (Me.) had his leg broken, by the rolling of a stick of timber in a Ship-yard.

concur the Senate in passing the Resolves to be engrossed. After some debate this motion was lost; yeas 55, nays 77. On motion of Mr Mower the House then adhered to its vote refusing the Resolves a passage.

The "Liquor Bill" came back again from the Senate, that body adopting the House bill (or the "Doane amendment" as modified by a select committee of the House) with a proviso submitting the question whether the bill shall become a law to the people at the Sept. election. Mr Chadwick hoped the House would adhere. The House refused to recede and concur; and then adhered to its former vote passing this bill, without the Senate proviso, referring the question to the people.

The Tax Act came from the Senate amended in several particulars, some of which were adopted and others rejected by the House, and as amended passed to be engrossed.

The valuation Resolves were assigned for this afternoon at 3 o'clock.

Resolve in favor of Rufus W. Sanborn, was passed to be engrossed. Adj.

AFTERNOON.

Resolve in favor of Benjamin Chadbourn, came from the Senate indefinitely postponed. The House refused to concur, and amended the resolve by restricting the pension to 15 months.
It then passed to be engrossed, 44 to 41.

The "Militia Bill" was then taken up. The House concurred in the several amendments made by the Senate to the bill.

Mr Johnson of Westbrook, moved to amend the bill by striking out all after the 5th section, or in other words, of striking out that part of the bill which provides for a volunteer system, (leaving nothing but provisions for a mere enrollment of the militia.)

A long discussion ensued on this amendment, during which Messrs Johnson, Barnham, Donnell, G. W. Perkins, and R. F. Perkins, advocated the amendment and opposed the bill; and Messrs Mower, Howe, and Prentiss opposed the amendment and supported the bill. The amendment was then adopted; yeas 78, nays 46. On motion of Mr Howe, the bill was then indefinitely postponed by an almost unanimous vote. Adj.

CLEARED OUT. The ice in the Kennebec River is out. The boats are about commencing their trips. This is earlier than usual.

Rapid Increase. The population of East Boston is now 5000. Twelve years ago it was five-one family.